

District Meeting
April 11, 2020
10:00 - 11:00 A.M.

Attending: Adrienne, DR; Susan R.; Nancy, GR, Northside; Colleen; Katy, GR, Sunday meeting, Alternate DR; Al A., Web site
Coordinator; Erik, District Treasurer, Literature Chair; Tressa, District Secretary;

Recitation of the Serenity Prayer, reading the Steps, Traditions, Concepts and Warranties.

The minutes of the last meeting were voted on and approved.

The treasurer's report was approved.

Task force report: Alateen had a program on FSU 88.9, 411
Teen. It is available on WFSU.Org, search Alateen.

Erik reported on the current status of literature. The literature has been selling well. No questions were asked.

IT report - Al and Colleen continue to do updates to the web site. Al asked that one request for updates be made as it is very time consuming to get many requests for the same update and different requests.

Adrienne reported that the 2020 Gratitude Luncheon had 37 attendees and was a huge success. She also reported that the Conflict Cafe has been postponed for the time being. It will be rescheduled. Assembly has been rescheduled as an online meeting, scheduled for June 19-20.

The various GR's for the groups reported how their groups are adapting to being quarantined. Many groups have Zoom meetings. The Sunday group is having conference call meetings to make it easier for their attendees.

Discussed Zoom meetings, who should bear the cost of the meetings, the District vs. individual groups, or having the free 40 minute groups. This will be addressed later.

Various people shared the challenges and advantages to them personally of the quarantine. Nancy H. discussed reaching out to those who are unable to join meetings.

Adrienne discussed the 7th Tradition and the various options of ways to donate. It will be up to each person as to how they wish to contribute, as usual.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:00 A.M. with recitation of the Serenity Prayer and the Al-Anon Declaration.
